GETTING THERE

Although covering a vast area, the Perth Hills Region is mostly within a half to one hour drive from the Perth CBC. Travelling by car is the easiest way to see and experience this beautiful countryside however let us share some alternative options! Why not take a day tour and take the driving hassle out of your day? ... especially if your trip involves sampling some locally made wine!

You can also visit transperth.wa.gov.au/journey-planner and simply enter your destination and it will suggest bus routes into the Perth Hills; the website also features language interpretation. The Midland and Armadale Train Line can only take you so far, but then you'll need to make alternative transport arrangements. Depending on your destination contact the Visitor Centres listed on this map and the helpful staff will be able to assist you with any enquiries regarding your visit, including transport, accommodation and itineraries.

Kalamunda History Village

The Kalamunda History Village is the largest folk museum in WA. It sits on the site of the old Upper Darling Range Railway Station; the station buildings and platform are on the National Trust List of Heritage Places. Local heritage buildings were relocated to the Village and decorated to show life in pioneer times, including a schoolhouse and blacksmith's shop. Visitors will discover a restored locomotive, a vintage fire engine, and historic farm and logging machinery. Kalamunda History Village – a treat for both the young and the young at heart! Open 7 days a week.

Road Safety Commission

Arm yourself against fatigue, regularly get 7.5 hours sleep a night. On long drives take a break every two hours and swap drivers if you can. Finally, beware of roaming wildlife, with most activity occurring around sunrise and sunset. If you do see an animal on the road sound your horn, and if it is safe to do so, drive slowly around them. Do not swerve around an animal to avoid. Make every journey safe.
