A BRIEF HISTORY

The first inhabitants of Australia arrived from the north approximately 40,000 to 60,000 years ago. Prior to the arrival of Europeans, Western Australia was occupied solely by Indigenous Australians who had lived peacefully and in harmony with the land for tens of thousands of years.

Indigenous Australians have a rich history and culture that is well worth exploring. Like so many Indigenous cultures of the 18th and 19th centuries, things were about to change.

In March 1827, Captain James Stirling of the Royal Navy arrived in the Swan River and discovered a land that possessed great natural attractions, in contrast to the previous Dutch and French navigators who described New Holland (a name given to Australia by the Dutch) as sterile, forbidding and inhospitable. This landing and subsequent report by Stirling to His Majesty's Government back in England, led to the foundation of the Swan River Settlement in June 1829.

Using the Swan River for transport, three towns were formed; Perth, Fremantle and Guildford. Fremantle, 20 kilometres downstream on the coast served as the colony's functional port and Guildford, 20 kilometres to the east was chosen to supply produce to the surrounding region because of the rich, fertile soil found in the Swan Valley.

Experiencing severe labour shortages, the British sent convicts to Western Australia between 1850 and 1868 to help establish settlements. 9721 convicts were transported to WA on 43 convict voyages. Between 1850 and 1868 Western Australia was a Penal Colony. The convicts were involved in a significant amount of infrastructure such as the Fremantle Prison, Government House, The Cloisters, the Swan River Mechanics' Institute and the Perth Town Hall.

WWW.HELLOPERTH.COM.AU

The Noongar people have a rich cultural heritage that offer visitors an experience found nowhere else in the world; they have forged a strong identity that resonates throughout the state. View the Indigenous art at the Art Gallery of WA and the Aboriginal Art Gallery in Kings Park. Visit the Charnock Woman, a 25 metre pavement mosaic in Victoria Gardens, East Perth, or the Yagan statue on Heirisson Island. Yagan was a Whadjuk Noongar warrior, who fought fearlessly to protect their culture and people during the Swan River Colony in 1833. There is also a new, nine metre high sculpture of him at Yagan Square, which was built to embody the spirit and culture of the Noongar people.

It took until the turn of the century to explore most of the state. In 1890, gold was discovered in the Kimberley and Kalgoorlie. This led to a population explosion and established Perth as the colony's trade capital, with Fremantle having to upgrade the harbour to cope with increased demand. Most of Fremantle's original architecture can still be seen today lovingly restored. With the advent of the Second World War, the 1940s initiated a huge demand for minerals and WA had plenty. Lead, iron ore, diamonds, nickel, mineral sands, oil and gas; some of the biggest mining and exploration companies in the world have offices in Perth. WA's economy still relies heavily upon the natural resources sector.

THE INDIGENOUS CULTURES OF AUSTRALIA ARE THE OLDEST LIVING CULTURE IN THE WORLD. INDIGENOUS COMMUNITIES KEPT THEIR CULTURAL HERITAGE ALIVE BY PASSING THEIR KNOWLEDGE, ARTS, RITUALS AND PERFORMANCES FROM ONE GENERATION TO ANOTHER, THROUGH STORYTELLING, PAINTING AND DANCE.

In the more recent past, development of infrastructure and key landmarks such as Elizabeth Quay, Yagan Square, the Ritz Carlton (opening in November 2019), Crown Towers and the Perth City Link - connecting Northbridge to the CBD for the first time in more than 100 years - Perth continues its evolution into one of Australia's most distinctive and welcoming cities. Ideally positioned as a business and tourism gateway for the world, yet sufficiently distanced from other cities to maintain its unique character and appeal.

Conjure up a city embodying all things right about cities. Assuming you lean toward the progressive, I'll wager your rendering includes the following: multiple parks and waterfronts; spotless subways and free public buses; restaurant menus with organic, locally sourced food and wine; cool bars in heritage buildings; and pop-up everything, from farmers' markets to cinema and yoga.

Welcome to Perth.

Published in the New York Times by visiting journalist Baz Dreisinger. Perth has everything you need to experience a fabulous holiday. 3000 hours of sunshine a year, friendly locals, historic attractions and relaxed alfresco dining offering world class food and wine.

There is plenty to see and do in Perth. Hop on an open top bus tour to Kings Park for spectacular views over the city; jump off and walk amongst the treetops or stop for a picnic. Shop in one of the many arcades or boutique stores, take a wine cruise on the beautiful Swan River, jump on the Transperth ferry to visit over 1400 species of animals at the Perth Zoo or, for something different, see Perth on a Segway Tour.

Perth offers abundant restaurants, pubs, bars, night markets, cafes, art galleries, theatre and exhibitions. The city is also surrounded by a number of 'urban' villages' such as Subiaco, Leederville and Mt Lawley, all offering a different inner city feel.

SEE & DO FREMANTLE

Fremantle is Western Australia's chief port and is situated at the mouth of the Swan River, just 25 minutes west of Perth.

Cosmopolitan, friendly Fremantle was founded in 1829 by Captain Charles Howe Fremantle, on the HMAS Challenger, in a ceremony which claimed the entire west coast of the previously named "New Holland" in the name of King George IV. Convict labour was used to build many of the original buildings such as the Fremantle Prison and Fremantle Arts Centre and, with the arrival of the gold rush, Fremantle soon developed into a thriving port.

Fremantle is much more than an architectural time capsule. Full of colour and a relaxed and casual atmosphere with busy restaurants and bars trading all hours of the day and night, one of the most intriguing aspects is that it is still possible to walk down streets that have remained virtually unchanged since the mid-19th century. This adds to the unique shopping experiences, especially in the West End.

Fremantle has a fascinating history with many tales of equally fascinating characters of the convict era. Learn about the daring (and successful) escape of the six Irish Fenian prisoners from Fremantle Prison in April, 1876. Or Moondyne Joe, who was an English convict and Western Australia's best-known bushranger; it was his amazing ability to escape every time he was placed behind bars that won him fame and the affection of the early settlers, and a firm place in our history books.

You can also visit the oldest public building in Western Australia, the Round House. Opened in January 1831, just 18 months after settlement, it was built to hold any person convicted of a crime in the settlement and was used until 1886. Today it's a popular tourist attraction with sweeping views over Fremantle, the Fishing Boat Harbour and the Indian Ocean.

See the following pages for things to see and do in Fremantle, or drop into the Visitor Centre in Kings Square; refer to the Fremantle Map on page 49.

FREMANTLE PRISON

Fremantle Prison is Western Australia's only World Heritage listed building. Built by convicts in the 1850s, Fremantle Prison was used as a place of incarceration for 136 years. Decommissioned as a maximum security gaol in 1991, the prison is a monument to a system of punishment that is uncomfortably recent.

Step inside and do time with Fremantle Prison's experienced guides on a range of Prison Day Tours, Tunnels Tour adventure or spooky Torchlight Tour. Fremantle Prison is open 7 days a week and the Prison Gatehouse is open from 9.00am to 5.00pm daily, and later on Wednesday and Friday evenings. See opposite or the Fremantle Map.

FREMANTLE MAP

Hello Perth produces a dedicated Fremantle Map; full of all the reasons why you'll fall in love with Fremantle; bookstores, Art Galleries, quirky stores and locally made designer boutiques, a huge choice of places to wine and dine or just sip the world's best coffee and watch the world go by. It lists all accommodation in Fremantle, where to get that relaxing holiday massage, where to enjoy succulent fresh seafood, and much more. INDIGENOUS HISTORY

The Whadjuk people are recognised as the traditional owners of the greater Fremantle/Walyalup area and their cultural and heritage beliefs are still important to the Nyoongar people today. The Whadjuk people are part of a larger group that have existed in the South-West of WA for more than 40,000 years, known by their common language: Nyoongar. The land around Fremantle (Walyalup) has always been a significant place for the Whadjuk; Walyalup was the country on both banks of the Derbal Yerrigan (Swan River). The story of how the land once extended past Rottnest but had been inundated by the sea is one of the oldest oral traditions in human history.

FISHING BOAT HARBOUR

FISHING BOAT HARBOUR

Fishing Boat Harbour is Australia's largest small boat harbour and is home to a wide range of commercial fishing vessels. The Harbour was built in 1919 and many of the fishing enterprises are descended from the Italian towns of Molfetta on the Adriatic Sea, and Capo d'Orlando in Sicily.

Many families of the original fishermen still fish out of Fremantle today. The Fishing Boat Harbour was actually a small fishing industry until it was subject to worldwide focus following Australia II winning the America's Cup, which resulted in major development over a very short period of time. The Harbour today is still a very busy working port, and is home to over a dozen restaurants, the Shipwreck Museum, a fresh fish market, accommodation, bike hire and a brewery.

Shop for freshly caught seafood, soak up the ambiance and watch the fishing boats come and go while enjoying the world's finest fresh fish. See the Dining section for a selection of dining choices in the Harbour.

Within the Fishing Boat Harbour you'll find numerous sculptures along the water's edge, which celebrate and represent Fremantle's fishing heritage, and it's also home to the tribute statue of Fremantle boy Bon Scott, ACDC's lead singer.

The Harbour boasts a wide variety of annual events and festivals such as the Blessing of the Fleet, the Fremantle Street Arts Festival and the Fremantle Seafood Festival. Visit visitfremantle.com.au for the schedule of events. Why not stay for a few days? There are several accommodation choices either within the harbour or nearby, so you can relax and indulge! Stay safe when driving in Western Australia

All drivers and passengers, including children, must wear a seat belt in Australia. There are large fines for not complying.

Remember

Drive on the left-hand side of the road. If you are not used to driving on the left, tape a reminder note on your dashboard.

Obey the Speed Limits

Speed is a major cause of death and injury and speed limits are strictly enforced. In suburban areas where there are no speed limit signs, the speed limit is 50km/h.

ROAD RULES IN

WESTERN AUSTRALIA

Roundabouts

On entering, always give way to any vehicles already in the roundabout. On multi-lane roundabouts, obey the directional arrows on the road.

Turning left

Driving straight ahead

You don't need to indicate on approach. Indicate left when you've passed the last exit before the one you intend to use.

Turning right or making a full turn

On approach, indicate right from the right lane. Indicate left when you've passed the last exit before the one you intend to use.

Uncontrolled Intersections

An uncontrolled intersection is where there is no traffic signal, stop sign, or give way sign.

As a rule, at an uncontrolled intersection, always give way to the right, to oncoming vehicles and pedestrians.

Merging

Where two lanes merge into one (i.e. lane lines end) the vehicle in front has the right of way.

Remember:

- Always use your indicator when merging;
- Keep a safe distance between your vehicle and the vehicle in front of you, and take turns to merge if there are long lines of merging traffic

Enjoy your stay – be safe on the road

Drive on the left

In Australia, drive on the left-hand side of the road. If you are not used to driving on the left, tape a reminder note on your dashboard.

Obey the speed limits

Speed is a major cause of death & injury and speed limits are strictly enforced by the police. Obey the speed signs. In suburban areas where there are no speed limit signs, the speed limit is 50km/h

Fatigue

Western Australia is a vast state and driving long distances on straight roads will make you tired. Some tips, don't drive directly following a long flight, share the driving if you can and use the rest stops along the road and take a short break every two hours.

Wildlife

When driving in rural and remote areas, look out for roaming wildlife on the roadside. The most active time for animals is sunset and sunrise. If you see an animal on the road or roadside, slow down and sound your horn – do not swerve to avoid.

Drive to the road conditions

Western Australia has varying road conditions. Slow down on dirt and gravel roads and get local information when driving in rural and remote areas.

Do not drive after drinking alcohol

It is against the law to drive with a blood-alcohol concentration (BAC) of 0.05 per cent or more. Police in Western Australia conduct random breath tests.

SWAN VALLEY

Within an easy 30 minute drive east from Perth lies the historic wine region of the Swan Valley, well known world wide for its award winning wines. The region is built on a unique history and heritage blending Indigenous, pioneering colonial and southern European roots. Nyongar Aboriginal people have inhabited the region for at least 40,000 years, and are the traditional owners of the Swan Valley. Captain James Stirling first sighted the Valley in 1827, and quickly realised the Valley's rich and fertile soils would sustain settlement – the first agricultural ventures by colonial settlers began in 1829.

ROTTNEST ISLAND

Rottnest Island is WA's very own island getaway, offering a casual atmosphere, picturesque scenery and some of the world's finest beaches and bays. Located just 19 kilometres off the coast of Fremantle, it's a special place for locals and a popular destination for interstate and international visitors.

Known to local Aboriginal people as Wadjemup, which means 'place of spirits' in the Whadjuk language, the island is of significance to Aboriginal communities across the State. Artefacts pre-dating 6,500 years have been found at a number of sites on Rottnest Island, indicating previous Aboriginal occupation of this area prior to the separation of the Island from the mainland. The first Europeans took up residence on the island shortly after the settlement of the Swan River Colony in 1829. Today Rottnest Island is a relaxed, car free island offering world class beaches and stunning bays, casual dining, walk trails, swimming, snorkeling, bike riding, and an abundance of natural wonders.

Summer is the most popular time to visit Rottnest Island with 63 beaches and 20 blissful bays to explore. Visitors and locals alike spend lazy, warm days swimming, snorkeling or bike riding, and balmy evenings with a cold drink over a BBQ. Children play tirelessly, the sun shines endlessly and the relaxed, idyllic island is abuzz with good family friendly cheer.

QUOKKAS

Perhaps the most photographed animal in the world (due to the Quokka selfie craze!), the quokka is native to Rottnest Island and looks like a pint sized kangaroo. William de Vlamingh, who in 1696 was the first recorded European visitor to Rottnest, gave the Island its name 'Rotte nest' (meaning rat's nest) after the abundance of quokkas he saw, mistaking them for rats.

Quokkas roam freely around the island in their natural habitat and are very friendly little creatures; but remember that Quokkas are wild animals and endangered species, so make sure you follow these simple rules to help protect them - don't feed, don't touch, don't harm. Feeding a quokka its unnatural diet can cause serious illness or be fatal.

Please visit the Events section at www.helloperth.com.au for a comprehensive list of events in Perth throughout the whole year, or follow us on Twitter, Facebook and Instagram.
