Road Safety Commission

We want you to have a safe and happy holiday. Western Australia is a vast state, bigger than the whole of Western Europe or four times the size of Texas. Remember to take regular breaks from driving to refresh and admire the sights. Share the driving with a friend. All vehicles drive on the left side of the road. If you are not used to driving on the left tape a note on your dashboard to remind you. Finally it can be exciting to see Australian wildlife, but beware of roaming animals such as kangaroos; drive slowly and if necessary put on your brakes and sound your horn. For more information, see pages 62 and 63 and visit www.wa.gov.au/rsc.

SEE & DO

PERTH CITY

On the Point

A truly hidden gem, Point Fraser (Boodjargabbeelup) sits on the brim of the Swan River, in an idyllic contemporary landscape on the edge of the City of Perth, at the east end of Riverside (Birdiya) Drive. The original aboriginal name Boodjargabbeelup means “the place of river, water and the land”. It was later named after the botanist, Sir Charles Fraser who extensively explored the Swan River in 1827.

Featuring a series of pathways and boardwalks among shady gum trees, it is the perfect place to experience the shimmering tranquillity of the riverside and city foreshore. It is a popular destination of walkers, exercise enthusiasts, tourists, and families. It is also part of the local cycle track and boasts a wide range of enclaves that encourage human engagement with the surrounding natural world.

This innovative and sustainable development was designed to preserve the Swan River wetlands, cleanse the river and maintain a connection between the City and the river's edge. You can learn about the history, biodiversity, and cultural significance of the location from the interpretive signage appointed along the boardwalks and trails. Bikes and canoes are available locally to hire or you can take the kids to the newly regenerated nature play playground. It is also the perfect place to spot the local wildlife, like the pelicans or famous black swans and you might even see a dolphin or two if you are lucky.

Nestled right at the heart of Point Fraser is the On the Point hospitality precinct, which offers an exciting array of waterfront entertainment venues with award-winning restaurants. It is a fantastic place to soak up some Swan-City views whilst enjoying a bite to eat or a sunset drink. If you are looking for a casual bar meal or something a little more sophisticated, you won't be disappointed by the choice and diversity of restaurant options available to you at On The Point. Whether you arrive by private boat, ferry, car or the number 24 bus, you must experience Perth's best waterfront entertainment destination! See opposite and visit www.onthepointperth.com.

SEE & DO

PERTH CITY

Kings Park

With its remarkable expanses of unique bushland and tranquil parkland, the park is the most popular destination in WA. It is said to be one of the largest city parks in the world at 400.6 hectares, and was first opened for public use in 1872. In 1895 Kings Park was called 'The Perth Park' but the name was changed in 1901 to mark the accession of King Edward VII to the throne. The park overlooks the Swan River and Darling Range and has sweeping views of the city and Swan River and showcases an outstanding collection of WA flora.

For thousands of years Aboriginal people have been visiting Mooro Katta or Kaarta Gar-up, two of the many names for Mount Eliza, the highest point of Kings Park. The area at the base of Kings Park, known as Goonininup, was an important ceremonial and dreaming area for Aboriginal males.

Shop for authentic local contemporary art and craft at Aspects Kings Park, dine in one of the cafes and restaurants, or bring a picnic and relax enjoying the spectacular views. Kings Park also offers free guided walking tours which are led by Volunteer Guides and depart daily from outside Aspects of Kings Park. Kings Park is also home to the State War Memorial. From the city, catch the free Blue CAT bus and the park entrance is a short walk from the bus stop.

IN 1895 KINGS PARK WAS CALLED 'THE PERTH PARK' BUT THE NAME WAS CHANGED IN 1901 TO MARK THE ACCESSION OF KING EDWARD VII TO THE THRONE

SEE & DO FREMANTLE

THE INDIGENOUS NAME FOR FREMANTLE IS WALYALUP AND ITS CONNECTION TO ABORIGINAL CULTURE DATES BACK 40,000 YEARS. FREMANTLE HAS A FASCINATING HISTORY WITH MANY TALES OF EQUALLY FASCINATING CHARACTERS OF THE CONVICT ERA.

Fremantle is the most eclectic and spirited seaside destination in the world. It's Perth's old town, a maritime city with spirit and soul, full of vibrancy, colour and culture. Chart a course through a coalescence of festivals, museums, UNESCO World Heritage, hundred-year-old markets and a soundtrack of sails and rigging in the sea breeze. Experience an otherworldly collision of musical and creative culture, and world class food and wine. Meet local characters who will lead you on adventures through historic streets and neighbourhoods, hidden laneways and salty ports on your way to Rottnest Island. It's an adventure not found elsewhere in Australia.

FREMANTLE

Fremantle is Western Australia's chief port and is situated at the mouth of the Swan River, just 25 minutes west of Perth.

Fremantle is much more than an architectural time capsule. Full of colour and a relaxed and casual atmosphere with busy restaurants and bars trading all hours of the day and night, one of the most intriguing aspects is that it is still possible to walk down streets that have remained virtually unchanged since the mid-19th century.

The Whadjuk people are recognised as the traditional owners of the greater Fremantle/Walyalup area and their cultural and heritage beliefs are still important to the Nyoongar people today. The Whadjuk people are part of a larger group that have existed in the South-West of WA for more than 40,000 years, known by their common language: Nyoongar. The land around Fremantle (Walyalup) has always been a significant place for the Whadjuk; Walyalup was the country on both banks of the Derbal Yerrigan (Swan River). The story of how the land once extended past Rottnest but had been inundated by the sea is one of the oldest oral traditions in human history.

Cosmopolitan, friendly Fremantle was founded in 1829 by Captain Charles Howe Fremantle, on the HMAS Challenger, in a ceremony which claimed the entire west coast of the previously named "New Holland" in the name of King George IV. Convict labour was used to build many of the original buildings such as the Fremantle Prison and Fremantle Arts Centre and, with the arrival of the gold rush, Fremantle soon developed into a thriving port.

Fremantle is home to Western Australia's only World Heritage listed building, the Fremantle Prison, and you can also visit the oldest public building in Western Australia, the Round House. See the following pages for things to see and do in Fremantle, or drop into the Visitor Centre in Walyalup Koort; refer to the Fremantle Map on page 49.

SEE & DO

FREMANTLE

Fremantle Prison

Fremantle Prison is Western Australia's only World Heritage listed building. Built by convicts in the 1850s, Fremantle Prison was used as a place of incarceration for 136 years. Decommissioned as a maximum security gaol in 1991, the prison is a monument to a system of punishment that is uncomfortably recent.

Step inside and do time with Fremantle Prison's experienced guides on a range of Prison Day Tours, Tunnels Tour adventure or spooky Torchlight Tour. Fremantle Prison is open 7 days a week and the Prison Gatehouse is open from 9.00am to 5.00pm daily, and later on Wednesday and Friday evenings. See opposite and the Fremantle Map.

The Roundhouse

Visit the oldest public building in WA, the Roundhouse. Opened in January 1831, it was built to hold any person convicted of a crime in the settlement and was used until 1886. Today it's a popular tourist attraction with sweeping views over Fremantle, the Fishing Boat Harbour and the Indian Ocean.

From 1900 until 1937 a cannon at Arthur Head was fired at precisely 1pm, in conjunction with the dropping of a 'time ball', to enable vessels moored offshore to verify the setting of their chronometer. The practice ended in 1937 when it was superseded by radio signals, but the tradition was re-established in 1988 for the enjoyment of visitors and the 1pm time signals are re-enacted every day. The time ball is dropped and the cannon is fired at 1pm sharp. If you attend you may even be able to trigger the shot!

FREMANTLE'S FISHING BOAT HARBOUR IS PERTH'S PREMIER TOURIST DESTINATION

FISHING BOAT HARBOUR

Fishing Boat Harbour is Australia's largest small boat harbour and is home to a wide range of commercial fishing vessels. The Harbour was built in 1919 and many of the fishing enterprises are descended from the Italian towns of Molfetta on the Adriatic Sea, and Capo d'Orlando in Sicily. Many families of the original fishermen still fish out of Fremantle today.

The Fishing Boat Harbour was actually a small fishing industry until it was subject to worldwide focus following Australia II winning the America's Cup, which resulted in major development over a very short period of time. The Harbour today is still a very busy working port, and is home to over a dozen restaurants, the Shipwreck Museum, a fresh fish market, accommodation, jetboating and parasailing, and a brewery.

Shop for freshly caught seafood, soak up the ambiance and watch the fishing boats come and go while enjoying the world's finest fresh fish. Within the Fishing Boat Harbour you'll find numerous sculptures along the water's edge, which celebrate and represent Fremantle's fishing heritage, and it's also home to the tribute statue of Fremantle boy Bon Scott, ACDC's lead singer.

Close by is Esplanade Park with playgrounds, a skate park, and big shady trees to picnic under. The park is also home to the Tourist Wheel Fremantle, where you can reach heights to enjoy stunning views over Fremantle, the harbour and ocean.

The Harbour boasts a wide variety of annual events and festivals such as the Blessing of the Fleet, which is an annual religious tradition adopted by many fishing villages and ports throughout the world to bless the fishing fleet before the opening of the fishing season. The Fremantle Street Arts Festival and the Fremantle Seafood Festival is also held annually. Why not stay for a few days? There are accommodation choices either within the harbour or nearby, so you can relax and indulge! Visit fremantlefishingboatharbour.com.

MANY OF THE FISHING ENTERPRISES ARE DESCENDED FROM THE ITALIAN TOWNS OF MOLFETTA ON THE ADRIATIC SEA, AND CAPO D'ORLANDO IN SICILY

The Old Courthouse

The Fremantle courthouses were originally opened in 1899. In December 2021 this heritage listed building re-opened as a fully restored modern hospitality venue, operating as a bar with casual dining.

Inside there are two majestic rooms with 6m ceilings, one operating as the main bar and the other as a function space. Outside the main building, they have created a new Pavilion that leads out to a beautiful garden area amongst the mature Peppermint and Pine trees. Both locations are ideal to spend the afternoon with a meal or drink in hand. You will find plenty of history on the building and the many characters who worked or appeared in the courts...you can even have your photo taken in the original 1899 dock. Open 7 days a week. See page 3 and visit www.oldcourthouse.com.au.

Don't drift off

Arm yourself against fatigue.

Regularly get 7.5 hours sleep a night.
On long drives take a break every two hours and swap drivers if you can.

Make every journey safe.

Tips for staying safe on regional roads

Drive on the left

In Australia, we drive on the left-hand side of the road. If you are not used to driving on the left, tape a reminder note on your dashboard.

Obey the speed limits

Speed is a major cause of death and injury and speed limits are strictly enforced by the police. Obey the speed signs. In suburban areas where there are no speed limit signs, the speed limit is 50km/h.

Fatigue

Western Australia is a vast state and driving long distances on straight roads will make you tired. Here are some tips to stay safe: Don't drive directly after a long flight, share the driving if you can, use the rest stops along the road, and take a break every two hours.

Wildlife

When driving in rural and remote areas, look out for roaming wildlife on the roadside. The most active time for animals is sunset and sunrise. If you see an animal on the road or roadside, slow down and sound your horn – do not swerve to avoid.

Drive to the road conditions

Western Australia has varying road conditions. Slow down on dirt and gravel roads and get local information when driving in rural and remote areas.

Don't drive after drinking alcohol

It is against the law to drive with a blood-alcohol concentration (BAC) of 0.05 per cent or more. Police in Western Australia conduct random breath tests.

Indigenous History

Known to local Aboriginal people as Wadjemup, which means 'place of spirits' in the Whadjuk language, the island is of significance to Aboriginal communities across the State. Artefacts pre-dating 6,500 years have been found at a number of sites on Rottnefast Island, indicating previous Aboriginal occupation of this area prior to the separation of the Island from the mainland.

The first Europeans took up residence on the island shortly after the settlement of the Swan River Colony in 1829. Almost a century of Aboriginal incarceration on Rottnefast Island began in 1838 and the Colonial Secretary formalised the Island's use as a penal establishment for Aboriginal people in June 1839. The island was used as an Aboriginal prison until 1904 (except for a short period of closure from 1849-1855), and subsequent forced labour camp for prisoners until 1931. Around 4,000 Aboriginal men and boys from all over the former colony were incarcerated on the Island and general public access to the Island during the prison era was restricted. Quokkas

Perhaps the most photographed animal in the world (due to the Quokka selfie craze!), the quokka is native to Rottnest Island and looks like a pint sized kangaroo. William de Vlamingh, who in 1696 was the first recorded European visitor to Rottnest, gave the Island its name Rotte nest' (meaning rat's nest) after the abundance of quokkas he saw, mistaking them for rats.

Quokkas roam freely around the island in their natural habitat and are very friendly little creatures; but remember that Quokkas are wild animals and endangered species, so make sure you follow these simple rules to help protect them - don't feed, don't touch, don't harm. Feeding a quokka its unnatural diet can cause serious illness or be fatal and you can be fined for feeding them. Please also dispose of your rubbish and food scraps in the bin as it's important to prevent the wildlife becoming sick from eating human food.

MANDURAH & PEEL

Stretching from the white sands and blue waters of the coast to the pristine wilderness of the forest, Mandurah and the Peel Region is the ultimate aquatic and nature playground where you will discover everything holiday memories are made of, less than an hour from Perth.

Showcasing stunning beaches, worldclass natural beauty, an abundance of wildlife, outdoor adventure, walk and cycle trail plus gourmet wine and dining experiences, Mandurah is set against a backdrop of magnificent beaches and an estuary twice the size of Sydney Harbour. The first people to have inhabited the region were the Bindjareb people of the Noongar Nation, who named the locality Mandjoogoordap, which translates as 'meeting place of the heart'.

In 1828, Englishman Thomas Peel established a small settlement at the mouth of the Peel-Harvey

Estuary, that was to become Mandurah and until the late 1800s, the quiet fishing village carved an existence from fishing, farming and canneries. In 1846, Western Australia's first mining operation was established at Yarrabah (near present-day Mundijong), mining lead, silver and zinc. The Jarrahdale timber mill, established in May 1872, became the state's largest timber operation. In recent times, the timber industry has declined, but the establishment of alumina refineries at Pinjarra and Wagerup, and gold mines at Boddington, have helped the local economy.

The city centre foreshore is home to an abundance of marine life including dolphins, pelicans, shags and black swans. In particular the blue manna crab has become synonymous with the area and an annual festival is held in its honour during autumn. Mandurah is easily accessible by train from Perth with a regular fast service taking 48 minutes. Drop into the Mandurah Visitor Centre, 75 Mandurah Terrace, Mandurah.

SWAN VALLEY

Within an easy 30 minute drive east from Perth lies the historic wine region of the Swan Valley, well known world wide for its award winning wines. The region is built on a unique history and heritage blending Indigenous, pioneering colonial and southern European roots.

The local Aboriginal people and custodians of the land are Whadjuk Noongar people who have inhabited the region for at least 40,000 years, and are the traditional owners of the Swan Valley. The historic town of Guildford in the Whadjuk region has always been an important meeting place for Noongar people. The area contains many campsites and spiritual sites which have been used by Noongars to the present day.

Captain James Stirling first sighted the Valley in 1827, and quickly realised the Valley's rich and fertile soils would sustain settlement – the first agricultural ventures by colonial settlers began in 1829. Southern European migrants arrived in the Swan Valley after World War I and then again after World War II, drawing upon their wine making skills from home to help make the Swan Valley what it is today.

CAPTAIN JAMES STIRLING FIRST SIGHTED THE VALLEY IN 1827, AND QUICKLY REALISED THE VALLEY'S RICH AND FERTILE SOILS WOULD SUSTAIN SETTLEMENT

It's proudly the oldest wine region in Western Australia and you can follow a 32 kilometre loop to enjoy wineries, breweries, restaurants, cafes, arts, crafts, museums and shop for fresh produce. Sample free tastings of wines and local produce such as olives, cheese, coffee and chocolate. The Valley is also home to Caversham Wildlife Park and Whiteman Park. Visit swanvalley.com.au or drop into the Swan Valley Visitor Centre in Guildford.

A BRIEF HISTORY

The first inhabitants of Australia arrived from the north approximately 40,000 to 60,000 years ago. Prior to the arrival of Europeans, Western Australia was occupied solely by Indigenous Australians who had lived peacefully and in harmony with the land for tens of thousands of years.

Indigenous Australians have a rich history and culture that is well worth exploring. They have kept their cultural heritage alive by passing their knowledge, arts, rituals and performances from one generation to another, through storytelling, painting and dance. Like so many Indigenous cultures of the 18th and 19th centuries, things were about to change.

In March 1827, Captain James Stirling of the Royal Navy arrived in the Swan River and discovered a land that possessed great natural attractions, in contrast to the previous Dutch and French navigators who described New Holland (a name given to Australia by the Dutch) as sterile, forbidding and inhospitable. This landing and subsequent report by Stirling to His Majesty's Government back in England, led to the foundation of the Swan River Settlement in June 1829.

Using the Swan River for transport, three towns were formed; Perth, Fremantle and Guildford. Fremantle, 20 kilometres downstream on the coast served as the colony's functional port and Guildford, 20 kilometres to the east was chosen to supply produce to the surrounding region because of the rich, fertile soil found in the Swan Valley. Experiencing severe labour shortages, the British sent convicts to Western Australia between 1850 and 1868 to help establish settlements. 9721 convicts were transported to WA on 43 convict voyages. Between 1850 and 1868 Western Australia was a Penal Colony. The convicts were involved in a significant amount of infrastructure such as the Fremantle Prison, Government House, The Cloisters, the Swan River Mechanics' Institute and the Perth Town Hall.

The Noongar people have a rich cultural heritage that offer visitors an experience found no where else in the world; they have forged a strong identity that resonates throughout the state. View the Indigenous art at the Art Gallery of WA and the many Aboriginal Art Galleries throughout the state. Visit the Charnock Woman, a 25 metre pavement mosaic in Victoria Gardens, East Perth, or the Yagan statue on Heirisson Island. Yagan was a Whadjuk Noongar warrior, who fought fearlessly to protect their culture and people during the Swan River Colony in 1833. There is also a nine-metre high sculpture of Yagan at Yagan Square, which was built to embody the spirit and culture of the Noongar people, and a new nine-metre-high sculpture, depicting a Noongar warrior and breaching whale, to welcome you as you arrive at Rottnest Island.

“THE INDIGENOUS CULTURES OF AUSTRALIA ARE THE OLDEST LIVING CULTURE IN THE WORLD.”

It took until the turn of the century to explore most of the state. In 1890, gold was discovered in the Kimberley and Kalgoorlie. This led to a population explosion and established Perth as the colony's trade capital, with Fremantle having to upgrade the harbour to cope with increased demand. Most of Fremantle's original architecture can still be seen today lovingly restored. With the advent of the Second World War, the 1940s initiated a huge demand for minerals and WA had plenty. Lead, iron ore, diamonds, nickel, mineral sands, oil and gas; some of the biggest mining and exploration companies in the world have offices in Perth. WA's economy still relies heavily upon the natural resources sector.

In the more recent past, development of infrastructure and key landmarks such as Elizabeth Quay, Yagan Square, the Ritz Carlton, Crown Towers and the Perth City Link - connecting Northbridge to the CBD for the first time in more than 100 years - Perth continues its evolution into one of Australia's most distinctive and welcoming cities. Ideally positioned as a business and tourism gateway for the world, yet sufficiently distanced from other cities to maintain its unique character and appeal.
